EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

July, 1995 - June, 1997	University of Pittsburgh , Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania MPH in Epidemiology
September, 1990 - June, 1995	University of California, San Diego , La Jolla, California PhD in Experimental Psychology (Health and Social Psychology emphasis)
September, 1988 - May, 1990	Radford University , Radford, Virginia MA in General Psychology
September, 1982 - June, 1986	Swarthmore College , Swarthmore, Pennsylvania BA in Philosophy
September, 1984 - July, 1985	St. Edmund Hall, Oxford University , Oxford, England Visiting student in Philosophy

EMPLOYMENT BACKGROUND

September, 2010 - present	Associate Professor Department of Public Health, Food Studies, and Nutrition, Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics, Syracuse University
May, 2003 - August, 2010	Associate Professor Department of Psychology, State University of New York at Oswego
May, 2007 - present	Principal Investigator/Project Director NIH Grant titled: "Lead and Vascular Reactivity to Acute Stress in Children"
September, 2001 – August, 2005	Principal Investigator/Project Director NIH Grant titled: "PCBs and Acute Stress Reactivity in Children"
August, 1998 - April, 2003	Assistant Professor Department of Psychology, State University of New York at Oswego
August, 1998 - August, 2002	Project Director/Co-Investigator Grant administered by University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Title: "Do hostility and stress predict CV mortality in MRFIT?"
January, 1997 - July, 1998	Investigator University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Research on SES, race, and health (PI: Karen A. Matthews, Ph.D.)

- July, 1995
- July, 1998      Postdoctoral Fellow
University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
Fellowship in the Cardiovascular Behavioral Medicine Research
Training Program at the University of Pittsburgh
- June, 1991
- June, 1995      Research Assistant
University of California, San Diego; La Jolla, California
Responsible for patient follow-up in a NIH funded study of "Psychological Preparation and Coronary Bypass Recovery" (PI: James A. Kulik, Ph.D.)
- September, 1987
- July, 1988      Mental Health Worker
St. Mary's Hospital; Knoxville, Tennessee
Co-led therapeutic groups, provided 1:1 patient interaction and assessment, and intervened in Emergency Room crisis situations.
- March, 1987
- August, 1987      Assistant Counselor
Oak Hill Center for Adolescents, St. Mary's Hospital; Knoxville, Tennessee
Co-led various therapeutic groups and implemented the program's philosophy in an out-patient treatment facility.
- June, 1986
- February, 1987      Mental Health Worker
Payne-Whitney Clinic, New York Hospital/Cornell Medical Center; New York
Involved in the daily care, assessment, and treatment of patients in a 24-bed acute care unit.
- Summers, 1982
- 1984      Laboratory Technician
Infectious Disease Unit, Department of Medicine, University of Vermont;
Burlington, Vermont
Antimicrobial chemotherapy research (see Jackson-York, Gump, & Gump, 1983).

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- September, 2010
- present      Associate Professor
Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York
Instructor for Influencing Health Behavior and Introduction to Epidemiology.
- May, 2003
- August, 2010      Associate Professor
State University of New York at Oswego, Oswego, New York
Instructor for Research Methods, Health Psychology, Introduction to Epidemiology, and Introduction to Psychology.
- September, 1998
- May, 2003      Assistant Professor
State University of New York at Oswego, Oswego, New York
- September -
December,
1995      Facilitator
University of Pittsburgh, Medical School
Facilitator for Problem Based Learning (PBL) section of medical school's Behavioral Medicine course.
- September, 1990
- June, 1995      Teaching Assistant
University of California, San Diego; La Jolla, California
Responsible for teaching sections, giving two lectures, and assisting in exam preparation for Introduction to Social Psychology. Also teaching assistant for Introduction to Statistics.

September, 1988
- May, 1990

Instructor

Radford University; Radford, Virginia

Instructed two Introduction to Psychology courses each semester. Duties included preparing and giving all lectures, preparing and administering exams, and grading.

CURRENT TEACHING PROFICIENCIES

Introduction to Epidemiology

Introduction to Psychology

Health Psychology (class and online versions)

Research Methods/Experimental Psychology

Health Promotion

Introductory or Advanced Statistics

Behavioral Medicine

Psychophysiology

EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBERSHIP

Journal: Psychosomatic Medicine; Case Reports in Vascular Medicine

NIH COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

Committee: Health, Behavior, and Context Subcommittee, NICHD, 4-year term (9/2011-6/2015)

AD HOC REVIEWER

Journals: American Journal of Epidemiology, Annals of Behavioral Medicine, Archives of General Psychiatry, Basic and Applied Psychology, Chest, Circulation, Health Psychology, International Journal of Psychophysiology, Journal of Applied Social Psychology, Journal of Health and Social Behavior, Journal of Personality and Social Psychology, Journal of Psychosomatic Research, Journal of Women's Health and Gender-Based Medicine, Personality and Individual Differences, Personality and Social Psychology Bulletin, Psychological Bulletin, Psychosomatic Medicine, Sex Roles, and Social Science and Medicine.

Granting Agencies: NIEHS Superfund Basic Research Program, National Institute of Child Health and Disease (NICHD), The Stroke Association, Israel Science Foundation
